

Is it time to write your next story?

Discover a village lifestyle that's right for you.

Retirement isn't about leaving anything behind, it's about writing the next pages in your life journey. Starting a fresh chapter, that allows you more time to enjoy the things you love.

Metlifecare's Longford Village Park is the perfect starting point. A location where the focus is on effortless pleasure. Boasting all the hallmarks of a holiday resort, nestled among 11 acres of park-like grounds, this village delivers an unbeatable lifestyle at an affordable price for people looking to really make the most of their retirement.

If you're an active relaxer, there's over 20 resident run social groups to cater to everyone's interests. Or if you prefer some solitude surrounded by greenery, avid gardeners and DIYers will find inspiration in the gardening plot and village workshop. With the range of activities and facilities available it's no wonder why the community of 200 active and sociable retirees at Longford Park Village have voted it the village with the highest resident satisfaction.

Metlifecare know that finding the right place to retire shouldn't be complicated, that's why their Sales Executive Sue Braithwaite-Smith will help you get started on your new chapter. Arriving in Papakura in 1986, she's been a chairperson of the Board of Trustees of Rosehill Intermediate, served on the Board of Age Concern Counties Manukau for 13 years and been involved with various local initiatives as well. You'd be hard pressed to find someone who knows the community as well as Sue, so who better to help you find out what life is like at Longford Park Village and explore your options for retirement.

Find a place to be you at prices that you'll love

With independent and assisted living options, and care from experienced local staff, Longford Park Village is a truly vibrant community.
